

FROM THE HEART

my love for you is chiseled in stone, that's how I feel

I'll stand by you. but you said the time would come

So don't give me no poems, prayers or promises just speak from your heart you're all I want and I'll ever need

Some days are like diamonds some are like gold, so take me as I am. Cause the time has come & take me as I am. or it will take ten thousand angels to mend my broken heart
