Hi Everyone! how are you all doing? I'm busy trying to get more info for when I get out.

We are on lock down today. I guess there was a stabbing on a different yard. But the cops like to be on the side of caution.

there is almost no mail this week I don't know what is going on.

still NOT ABLE to respond to any of you yet, but as soon as I get mail. I will tell you what I know.
