Do You Have a Foot Fetish?
I Have Two Feet!

created 11 Nov. 2011

* Headers, I ran this blog by my shrink up here, whom I call "Cavegirl" — she's got a low forehead & a protruding brow ridge, which I find cute; she's smart too. She found it kind of strange, but laughed when I told her it was a desperate marketing ploy to attract people googling "foot fetish" to my blog, inspired by some desperately lonely prisoner whom I heard being picked on for sending drawings of his feet to gay men.

I figure, "They're just freakin' feet; if ya got a thing for 'em, go crazy."

Anyhoo, Cavegirl didn't condemn this, which I take as a, "Hurry up & post it."
Voilà

heel!

P.S. Seriously, for $5 I'll send ya an ink-print of my sole.

Pun intended.
My blogs are ink-prints of my soul.
