

Death is Certain

I feel like a bird with no wings
Memories of my childhood playin' on the swings
I'm stuck in this penitentiary tryin' to have a little change
Hoping to get closer to that range of bein' free
From the time I wake till the time I go to sleep
These 4x4 is all I see
Like a firestarter I want to see tomorrow,
Another day of pain, another day of sorrow.
I'm standing on the world, so stop tryin' to touch this,
I've done my time, so nobody is touchless
Sometimes when I'm lonely, I sit & pray in my cell block
A race against time till the clock just stops.
Sweet revenge put rage in my eyes
True betrayal, plus genuine lies
More trouble than the average
Just made 30, and I'm livin' like a savage
Honest illusions watching angels fall
Before you walk, you got to learn to crawl
Blast for me when we hit the battle fields
You showed me truth cuz, I knew you was real
Just to reveal, I got to let it burn
Picture the rearview, how I miss my turn?
Two dangerous minds, yeah we think alike
Both of us living a wild & crazy life
Picture you in mind, so I'll forever hold ya
Unconditional love of a dead soldier
Death brings dedication to this poem
It's hard to understand, but life goes on
Sometimes it feels like my soul's on fire
Close the casket, it's time to say good-bye
Buried underground but, I'm going to the sky
Wipe the tear drops, we ain't got to cry
Just know it's something, we love & miss
My last words go something like this

Death is Certain
