

Dear Blog readers,

Greetings, this blog post which I share with you today is a story I came across in New York magazine written by Geoffrey Gray. This story is about some of the corruption and brutality that a lot of prisoners witness and talk about which most of the general public and State official dismiss as exaggerated talk angry prisoners.

I share this story with you in order to show you the foundation of some of the expressions that I write. I also want to share with you a Recent Prison Related Statistics.

You can find additional reporting of this story on-line by Andre Tarter. Now I present to you (The Lords of Rikers).

Sincerely,

George Borges
