

In View

In the blue of morning
Geese fill the sky
Two columns that form The V
Take Thy birds, Lord,
Or cover them in flight
Let many elude the canons
That target the sky.
They fly so gracefully
Over California's men dressed in orange
Others are participating in view.

Pure Thoughts With Ash

Sincerity needs no veil
But here rich words are often misused
Not all are brothers of the Order

— Jesus Christ —

Implores all to love
No rotation to such a call
Just the constant "Will Do"
All learn that are willing
One accord ... One hope
