Chocolate and Sex

Re-write

I searched but I found only loneliness
I struggled against darkest despair
Like a light I held hope out before me
but it only showed NO ONE WAS THERE

In darkest ~~ness~~ I found life's a struggle so I struggled against dark despair
Like a light I held hope out before me
but it only showed NO ONE WAS THERE

* Love is a fcking myth they teach us
Romance is life's biggest lie
FCK ANYONE YOU CAN FCK
AS OFTEN AS YOU CAN FCK
FOR SOON WE ARE ALL GOING TO DIE

I prayed to the Gods of the cosmos
I begged to be given JUST ONE CHANCE
I swore to do ANYTHING they asked of me
AND STILL I JUST WATCHED OTHERS DANCE

I prayed to the Gods of the cosmos
I begged to be given JUST ONE CHANCE
I swore to do ANYTHING they asked me but my sacrifice was blood on death's lance

In the darkness I found life's a struggle
A match against everyone you meet
With madness you give your heart to another this insures that you soon will be beat

I searched but I found only loneliness
A match against everyone you meet
Out of madness you give your heart to another Insuring your destinies bleak

They promised they would always love me
AN OATH TO ease all of my pain but the dagger that they hide behind them would carve the sanity right outta my brain

Grudge fcked, dick whipped, pussy whooped
At least your lust is satisfied
Make em cum and you'll control their mind and eyes

Sex is a weapon like no other
Love is a fcking myth they teach us
Make em cum and you'll control their minds + their eyes

Romance is life's biggest lie
Sex is a weapon like no other
It has no shape and shows no color

Grudge fcked, dick whipped, pussy whooped
At least your lust will be satisfied

They promised they would always love me
AN OATH TO ease my pain but the dagger they hid behind their back would carve the sanity right outta my brain
