I Received Two Christmas cards from ladies I do not know, Just Because They liked my Silly  $\frac{1}{2}$  assed drawings...

I dont like the thought that in the last months I have had NO connection with my family and that Strangers treat me better.

those Two cards and a Merry Christmas/Thanks to a Good Customer card from my art supply company is all I've gotten since Before Thanks Giving...

Lately I've Been Dealing with the frustrating fact that there is again a cartoon Thief around...

a folder of Hijinks Strips was lifted from my locker while I was working... Now I must Start from Scratch...
