Dear Madam,

After careful consideration of the contents of your petition (communication / complaint), we sincerely regret having to inform you that the United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights is not in a position to assist you in the matter you raise, for the reasons indicated on the back of this letter. We must therefore unfortunately return your correspondence.

Please accept our apologies for not replying in a more personal manner. You may understand that, while we appreciate your reasons for writing to us, the existing procedures require that it is ascertained whether certain preliminary criteria are satisfied before proceeding with the examination of a petition.

For information about the procedures for the examination of individual petitions on human rights violations, please consult our website: www.ohchr.org, direct link: <http://www2.ohchr.org/english/bodies/petitions/index.htm>.

If you have difficulty accessing our website, please write to the UNHCHR, Information Office PW-RS-011, 1211 Geneva 10, and ask for Human Rights Fact Sheets Nos. 7, 12, 15 and 17.

Yours sincerely,

Petitions and Inquiries Section

1. The Human Rights Committee cannot examine petitions alleging violations of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR) unless the State is also a party to the Optional Protocol (OP). _____ is not a State party to the Optional Protocol.
2. The Committee against Torture cannot examine petitions alleging violations of the Convention against Torture (CAT) unless the State has made the declaration under article 22 recognizing the Committee's competence to receive and consider petitions. _____ has not made the declaration.
3. The Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination cannot examine petitions alleging violations of the Convention on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination (CERD) unless the State has made the declaration under article 14 recognizing the Committee's competence to receive and consider petitions. _____ has not made the declaration.
- 3.a The Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women cannot examine petitions alleging violations of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW) unless the State is also a party to the Optional Protocol (OP). _____ is not a State party to the Optional Protocol.
- 3.b The Committee on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities cannot examine petitions alleging violations of the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (CRPD) unless the State is also a party to the Optional Protocol (OP). _____ is not a State party to the Optional Protocol.

Considering your petition under CCPR:

4. The State party concerned has entered a reservation to the relevant treaty as a result of which your petition cannot be examined.
 5. Your complaint is being examined or has been examined by the European Court of Human Rights, by the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights or by the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights.
 6. The object of your petition falls outside the scope of the relevant treaty.
