Hello Heart, I bet your Christmas tree is especially beautiful this year? I say that because for me, writing you has been life changing and it does my heart and spirit good to have been blessed by your presence in my life. Today every thing looks fantastic! grass looks greener, colors appear sharper, crisp, I even notice the birds singing and chirping. The air even seems fresher.....(Smile) Yes, I may not be able to go where I want physically but trust me when I say you make my spirit soar and YOU have made my Christmas this year very dear and special. Don't ever think for one moment that you, by your actions have not truly impacted me in ways I've yet to share with you, yet they are in good ways. Please know that it is you who inspires me, it is you who give me that little extra something each and every morning that put a whole new perspective to my day. I hope that by the time you read this, these words wrap around you in a way that my arms cannot and you feel how truly precious you are. How much nicer would this world if there were more people like you. I really believe they broke the mold after the creator made you (Smile). Merry Christmas Heart..... Cerratus ojos, piensa en mi y estare contigo.....
