Sorry you were assaulted. I've always wanted to travel.

Where have you traveled to?

What's your favorite place? Why?

Standing up for yourself at work can be tricky. Do you work around a lot of racism or sexism?

What do you do for work?

Where do I think our energy moves to?

Everywhere! Some energy is more energized so it would be clingy like belly button lint while others would float or.

How'd you come up with "The Window"? Reminds me of Alice in Wonderland or a Stephen King title. Pretty cool!
