

L...O...V...E

1-6-12

L... is for the desire that lingers in my heart for the chance to court you properly as a woman should be. L... is for the physical lust that I feel between us whenever you are near. L... is for the seductive language that I'd spin to catch you in my web of eternal bliss. L... is for the long walks on the beach we'd take together holding hands listening to the waves crash the shore. L... is for the laughter we'd experience as we enjoy each others company. L... is for the lunch dates we'd have as we sit, talk, and feed each other like two lovers do.

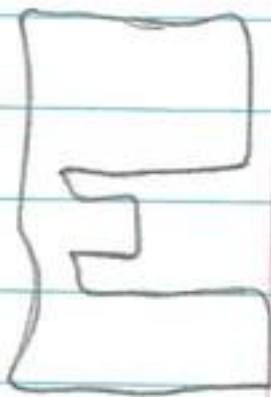

O... is for the outstanding connection between us. O... is for the outspoken gestures I'd do for you, like send your favorite bouquet of flowers to your job. O... is for the ooh's and awws you'd voice out loud as I massage your back after a tense day at work. O... is for the over the top dinners I'd cook for you to show you how a real man is versatile. O... is for the overwhelming feeling you'd get as you pick up the phone and hear my voice. O... is for the overtime I'd commit to you just to insure you'd be my one and only.

V.... is for the vibrant way your body looks in your cocktail dress as we prepare for a romantic night of dinner and dancing. V.... is for the vivacious look in your eyes as I tell you I've never felt like this before about anyone.

V.... is for the victory we both feel as we realize this might be the one. V.... is for the positive vibe our families get after meeting us and seeing us together. V.... is for the voltage of electric attraction that emits between us even as we converse over the phone. V.... is for the visual effect of two people in love, which we transmit as we walk down the street.

E.... is for the explosiveness we experience as our lips touch for the first time. E.... is for the ecstasy we feel as our bodies move from third base to score a home run.

E.... is for the eminent detail we use to explore this thing we have found together called love. E.... is for the eternal comfort we feel as we lay in each others arms. E.... is for the energy we put into this journey to find the ultimate prize..... LOVE! Rebell Williams
