

Another World Awaits

1-2-12

1:51 p.m.

When I release or "give up" the world, I am not left with less, because there is another world waiting, a spiritual counterpart that answers this dream of disaster. God has recreated in beauty everything I now see. Giving up the old world for the new can only be done moment by moment. And it is never done person by person. To have no attachments doesn't mean to have no love. Love alone shows me the new world. I have discovered spiritual love from up above. Now I'm in search of physical love in the form of a girl. Could that be you?
