Another week gone, still lonely, no mail, and composing in my mind many sarcastic things to say to you turds who stopped writing children of mine, write me...

I know your young lives are busy but there has to be a minute or two in ~~the day~~ which you can write....

Crys oh bestest friend, where are you?  I'm looking  but I don't  see you... I've finished the replacement shirt for you, pants will come soon as I have enough $ to buy them.

I can't afford any  but maybe you'll cherish them more if I make one or two which I started earlier today..

I need to know where it goes to,
I will not mail it out before I hear from you... won't lose another box..

friends and visitors  the first postcard art is on now. I am working on others people and animals and am composing my next hijinks adventure

Well at least Candy still talks to me, — writes me that is, She got jokes too, Sadly They're all on me ^{oo} ...
