

my struggles and * goals *

Today is Monday, January 23, 2012 and I'm trying to figure out how to write for this blog. Facts are I can't say exactly what I want, due to the censorship contract that I signed. I only agreed to it, because I need to reach out to the outside world and hopefully find some one to set up a blog for me where there's no censorship whatsoever. I have a lot that I want to say, some of which people aren't going to like. But I don't want to write fluffy candy ass sugar coated pieces. I want to be real, speak my mind and tell it how it is, or at least how I see it. I can not do that on this blog. so I'm looking to find someone whose willing to run my blog thedeathrowpoet.blogspot.com, which I had to shut down because of censorship.

I need some one with a no fear, no surrender mind set, cause see... I'm in the hands of my enemies and the individuals that I'll be writing about. I'm about peaceful protest, hunger strikes, letter writing campaigns and such. to expose the corruption, unconstitutional conduct and abuse that takes place within these prison walls, and there's so much abuse that goes on back here, most of which you will never hear about, well my goal is to not only make sure the world hears about it, but to make sure it comes to a stop. By doing so... I will be putting myself in harm's way.

I will face dangerous situations of retaliation.

I feel it's worth it to stop the abuse. to stop officers from verbally and physically abusing prisoners. I know... I've heard people say it time and time again that I can't make a difference.

well can't, never could do nothing. I've got to try. I can't sit here and witness inhuman treatment... and do nothing about it, and feel good about myself! Silence is part of the problem. For that, silence breeds more violence. So you have a choice, speak up, and speak out, or remain silent. Either your part of the solution, or your part of the problem, you can't be both. Needless to say, you see where I stand.

I'm not searching for penpals, I'm looking to build me an army of "soliders," to fight this corruption and abuse that's taking place behind these walls.

America puts up this facade of fighting for human rights, when in reality, it's one of the worst violators. You've seen, caught on video where prisoners are beaten, dumped out of wheelchairs, sexually assaulted with night sticks or broom handles. So just imagine the abuse, that you're not seeing, and hearing about, that takes place behind prison walls, of level seven maximum security units. Just imagine!

One of my goals is to make the legislature implement a law requiring staff to where audio and video devices, which will not only stop the abuse, it'll cut down on law suits and require staff to act in a professional manner at all times. It will also enhance security and prevent staff from smuggling in drugs, guns, cell phones and other illegal contraband that is harmful to the security of these high security prisons. I have big ideas and big dreams, which most do not like. I'm on a mission... but I can't do this alone. I need help. Organizing and getting attention when I do hunger strikes, and just standing behind me and giving me the support that I need, to expose this corruption and abuse to the media. This is just one of my goals, the other is to bring attention to capital punishment and give others a platform to express themselves, uncensored. Cause censorship sucks!!" I detest censorship, even when it's expressing an opinion that I don't agree with, you should maintain the right to say what's on your mind, I can at least hear and know your opinion, even if I don't agree. I can agree that we disagree.

If you are of this mind set, and are willing to help me fight for this change, I'd love to hear from you. I face an uphill battle, there will be nothing easy about this. So far in the past year some of the retaliation I've faced is, 1.) Having my legal file destroyed in retaliatory shake downs, 2.) Having personal property destroyed and thrown away. 3.) I've been written fraudulent lying bogus Disciplinary Reports (DRs) in order to keep me in lock down. 4.) I've had my visits taken, 5.) Denied Recreation, 6.) Denied law library. 7.) They've refused to feed me, would not give me a food tray. 8.) They've threatened to jump on, played psychological game's cutting off my water, leaving me with "nothing to drink." I had to file a law suit to make them back off. 9.) They threw my legal/media/personal mail away for almost two months. I know how hard that is to believe. I didn't "think" they were this stupid. I underestimated their stupidity!" But I still haven't, and won't back down!" We can not allow bullies to make us back down!" Under no circumstance should we ever back away from a bully!" It only gives them more power.

As I've stated I'm out to bring change. We need staff to be required to wear personal audio and video devices. For that is the only way to bring honor and integrity into the F.D.O.C. which stands for "the Florida Dept. of Corruption!" I want to make sure these officer on inmate assault's are stopped. make sure staff are feeding prisoners and no longer physically and mentally abusing them. And I'll gladly give my life to accomplish this goal.

Thank you very much for your time and any and all help that you can offer.
