

Do I Want The Identity
Formed By My Past
Or The Identity Created by God?

2.7.12

12:15 p.m.

Most of us have abundant reason to be angry and feel wounded about things that have been done to us. But eventually we ask ourselves if - despite the justification - we wish to remain the picture of damage that we believe another person caused. The part of us that is joined with God is untouched by human history, but when the mind dwells on the past, that part of us is made inaccessible.
