Glad to get your responses, but I am still waiting for my pictures. Promises! Promises! Promises! There's an open spot on my wall where I planned on putting them. I'm just saying.

Loved seeing you. Glad you enjoyed meeting Gillis. He speaks of you often and tells me he really hopes you'll come see him again before he leaves. :) He's actually in the homestretch now. I'll be posting another update about him soon.

No, there will be no video of my dance performance. Sorry! My big mouth means that there may be something of a repeat performance at my cousin's house upon my release, but that's it. Seating will be limited.

That's all for now. Hope all is well and the boyfriend is still treating you well. Send me my pictures!

until next time...
