..... "Who is dude?" .....

To all my beloved viewers, I'm sure that you all know someone or a dude that fits in one or more of the descriptions above. Sadly I know someone who fits in every one of them be it an uncle, friend's father, a cousin or just someone in the hood. Naturally (I) fit into the second and last two categories and like noted I'm now trying to use my time in prison to get on point, get my mind right and soul free as I refuse to get back out into the free world and get back on the same thing(s) I use to be on. I'm a changed man now; I'm changed for the better..... I am: Nasir Wali Muhsin

If you all know someone like mentioned above don't be afraid to blog or write me about it, maybe we can share some inspiration or healing points with him or her in order to help him or her change....
