Hi there. Welcome to my first post. I have no idea what I want to say at the moment, but I will state my goals for my blog.

First, I think that most of the posts will be short essays, poetry, and observations on life. I admit that when it comes to opinions, I have many -haha!

Another goal is to gain some online credentials, as I hope to develop my writing into a sustainable career. For years, I've been filling notebooks with stories, poems, songs & other ideas, but I've never done much to turn it all in to something useful. I look forward to attempting to entertain you and I hope you will comment on what I say.

Also, I think that the internet is an amazing factory for truth, revolution, and is one of the last places where we can fight back against oppression, hate, ~~the~~ censorship and other anti-American things.

More soon
