

BLOG: EACH ONE REACH ONE

you know the ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience but where he stands at times of challenge and controversy it's evident that misery loves company but so does prosperity...

It's easy for us to spend these life and take our freedom for granted when we are on the outside looking in but when all that is stripped away from us and we find ourselves in situations as such what do we do? when we are challenged and going through controversy they not only test the fiber of our character but they strengthen it every set back endured and weathered in the right spirit makes a soul noble and stronger so we can become better with each new day when we are ready to learn! small mind's discuss people, average mind discuss events, great mind's discuss ideas, God gives every bird it's food but he don't throw it into the nest I've found light in dark places and the way I see and define my situation is the greater the more the greater the things that brings him home and to be real with you I can't say what I'll do when I'm released because the reality of it all scares me but I have to face life and since it has to be done I might as well grab the never-bial bull by it's horn!
