

"Frustration"

I've been catching hell -
in a Disciplinary Confinement cell.
From a no good Corrupt ass Administration.
Causing me so much mental Frustration

I have no help -
got no support
I've even reached out - to the United States District Court.

on the Frustrations
OF these Federal Constitutional Violations.

so far there's been
no luck.

I surely seem...
to be stuck.

I'm talking some serious retaliation.

From this Corrupt ass
prison Administration.

setting me up
with bogus DRS
to keep me behind
D.C. Bars.

No law library
No recreation.
we're talking about
a lot OF Frustration.

I can't even . . .
get out the word.
For my friend doesn't want . . .
me to be heard.

say's I'm sarcastic
angry to a fault.
But it's human atrocities
I'm bring to a halt.

you either for . . .
or you against.
you can't straddle
both sides of the fence.

I'm in here . . .
up under the gun.
and believe me baby
this is no fun.

But I'm fighting
for human rights.
for those too weak
or unwilling to fight.

I say baby —
I'm in the dirty south.
as she slaps her hand
up over my mouth.

my pen was gaining
a fine stroke.
when I learned my blog
was little more than a joke.

For hell -
I can't even be real
and say what
I truly feel.

I want to define...
to speak my mind.
to bust this corrup
ass administration's behind.

But I'm unable...
For my Friends unwilling
to let me show...
the blood their spilling.

For I'm trying to bring to a halt.
OFFicer on...
Inmate assaults.

stopping all...
the corruption within.
the FDOC -
and what amounts
to the devils din.

Try to say...
Farewell.
to a night of hell
in a tiny ass strip cell.

Am I angry?
you damn right!
That's my motivation
to win this Fight!

This poem Frustration I wrote back in November, I sent out close to 30 something blogs, and my friend didn't want to post them, I'll admit I was writing with a lot of anger directed towards this Administration here at UCX. But what I was saying... I wanted the world to hear. The blog is what caused the retaliation against me, and then in the middle of this battle, I had no platform to speak from, which is why I now write over here. I don't want to write fluff, I just want to be me and I want to be heard.
