"A Nation OF Hypocrites"

welcome to America, where they teach two wrongs don't make it Right, yet turn around and do exactly the opposite of what they teach, murdering the murderer under the mantle of justice. Then declaring that Justice, and not Vengeance was served. And that it was done in a Calculated and Fair manner, that serves the peoples best interest. Well let's look at it for what it truly is.

To start off the death penalty is arbitrarily and capriciously applied in most cases. you can go out, into general population and find murder cases that are far more sever, more heinous than the guys sitting back here on death row, yet those men are serving life sentences while others sit here 10, 20, 30 years with the imminent peril of death hanging over their heads, where not only must they suffer with the state and Government's threat of murdering them, but their family must suffer through this same threat of their loved one being murdered by their own Government. Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, wrong for wrong, stupidity for stupidity!" For it is a fact that the death penalty - exchanging murder for murder is not applied fairly.

We've all heard the lie that the death penalty is a deterrent, well there's been numerous studies to show that that is a sack of crap! That's a myth, put together by some one who enjoys our system, of murdering our citizens under the mantle of justice.

We've heard the lie that these men need to be killed to protect society, that they are not fit for society. yet we've seen these same men who were convicted and sentenced to death by 12 panel jury, later get their sentences and convictions reversed where they are returned to society and live out productive lives. Which goes to show that what the state is telling our citizens in order to get these convictions and sentences in order to premeditate one of our own citizens murder is a bunch of b.s. Our D.A.'s and state Attorney's go into these court rooms and put on Oscar worthy performances, because it's their job. And they commit acts of murder in the name of justice. In fact the state is committing the highest degree of premeditated murder in the history of the world. There's no other murderer in the history of man kind that orchestrates the type of murder that's taking place under the American Justice system. Not even Hitler's murdering of the jews was as highly orchestrated as these murders that are taking place in America's Death Chambers.

Do as I say... not as I do. What happened to leading by example? What happened to two wrongs not making it right? What happened to make this a vengeful nation of hypocrites, that here in the 21st century is unwilling, or unable to evolve with human decency? Murder in return for murder. You can sugar coat it any way you want, but the bottom line is it's still murder. I welcome any and all comments. In peace and love
