Let's Get to The point.
Who decides what's Sexy and
what's beautiful?

IS It the powerful-political individuals
who decide By manipulating guidelines, Standards, Bill, Laws and Such?

IS It the few percent with extreme wealth
who buy through surgeons the Ideal look?

Maybe It's the famous who starve, Carve,
and chemically destroy Them selves to obtain something that ~~is~~ ~~is~~ ~~is~~ someone else could tell them, They already qosses..

This cant possibly Be a decision
across the board made By humanity, could It?
and what of those who's Interpretation of beautiful or Sexy isn't the popular choice? Does that make them ILL or Mentally Disturbed? Do They need Theripy, or a 12 Step Program?

I Saw a few product advertisements on TV, that somewhat annoyed me...

36D-24-34 highlighted brunett,
Big bright green eyes, perfect skin, young angelic
face. IS that Beautiful?

well Not To me!!

there's no Beauty in The Shallow's of the Sea - you have to Go deeper to find the wonders awaiting Discovery..

It's the Same way with women.. at least It is for me and the lady
I always have on my mind...

So Stop, and LOOK around,
and Tell me

What's Beautiful?
