Kimberlita.

Greetings, on your last comment. sorry you feel that way. I how ever am one of the fortunate one's who have a loved one who help me out. which is why I have an mp3 player. sorry to hear that you can't afford them for your kids. The Company and the state is price gouging our families with over priced mp3 player's among the other items. And believe me I haven't got any donation's from this blog. zero. Nor any pen friend's unfortunately. Believe this, our need's are not met by the state. The Food is awful!" you don't get shampoo or deodorant unless you have the money to buy it. Paper, pen's, stamps and envelopes you better have a friend or family member to help you other wise your going without. Well I just wanted to comment on your comment. I need to get to sleep. Take Care In Peace + Love Jonnie 😊
