John

Last night I received another comment from you. And look I don't have internet access, or control of this blog, so if anyone ever does remove anything, it's not me. But I talk the talk, and I walk the walk. I can't be your hypocrite, cause you know where I stand, I'm a self proclaimed F up! more Fault's than any ten men combined. Just making sure I respond, for I will respond to all responses, whether they agree or disagree. And to be honest, I'd rather hear from those who support the death penalty. For then I get to understand them, and allow them to understand me. maybe you'll never read this, since you stated that you won't waste your time coming here any more. But others will now know I will respond to all. In peace and Love Bonnie
