

Assistance With Typing

I knew a guy with a typewriter and we would barter or do business in terms of him typing my blogs for me. Fortunately he's been moved to another institution however its left me without a typer and im now doing my blogs by handwriting them.

Don't get me wrong, handwriting shows a little character and personalizes something being read but im sure no one can read this chicken scratch I call hand writing (LHAWA <sup>HA</sup>).

IF anyone out there has the time to ~~assist~~ assist me with typing my blogs "Please" contact me. I would truly be grateful for your assistance and very humbled by your generosity. IF this is something you have time to do or your willing to do please contact me at:
