Courtney_G.

First and foremost let me say its an honor to hear from you. Your comments are like maybe the 3rd or 4th I received since I been blogging so its cool to be heard.

It appears you are "very" in touch with whats popular these days and your breakdown of iPhone, iPads, Twitter, etc. were "very" informative so I do thank you for that as well. I was surprised that many people don't buy D.V.D's anymore . . . Net flix and services like it have really innovated the way movies are seen from ~~now~~. What you tell me . . . it seems very cool.

You mentioned asking more questions if I think of them and Courtney_G I have millions (ha ha) but here are a couple I'd like to ask you for now.

- (1) When you use Google Earth does it show states, cities, streets etc?
- (2) How does a "Kindle" or "Nook" differ from an iPod?
- (3) Do they have sites that break down all the features of a Kindle, Nook, iPhone, iPad etc?

* IF Yes, can you direct them to me or print & send them to me?

- (4) Do you personally use Twitter or Social Networking sites?
- (5) In your personal life how has our countries economic conditions impacted you (work, transportation, groceries etc.)?

Courtney_G thank you for your informative response to my blog entry "Whats New" and it was a joy to have this exchange with you. Please help to spread the word about my blog by spreading it to family, friends, coworkers, or social media. I look forward to hearing your answers to the questions above and invite you to write me directly as I'll receive your response faster. Either way, I anticipate your future comments and thank you for taking the time to reach out to me. Until next time, best wishes and peace be with you. - Marcus -
