Corina

Thank you for your very nice comment on my poetry. I really don't do a lot of poetry. I'm more of an artist than anything else. But I tried my best and I'm glad you liked it. And yes I really am looking for a pen-pal. But I really don't get to post things online a lot. But I would love to write you. And get to know you. But can we write snail mail you know address to address. I promise I'll write you back letter for letter. My address is

And I really hope to get a letter from you soon Corina. And I have been to Springfield, La. a few times
