

"Seeking photos of Life"

Today and for the rest of my incarceration, my quest is to receive as many photos as possible of the outside world from my viewers, and I'm doing so because due to being incarcerated I've been deprived of the opportunity to see a lot of things in life and I'm missing with a passion →

→ Those things usually at my avail or actually taken for granted while free, Those sounds, Scents, Feels, and Sights, not to mention tastes ~~HAVE~~ quickly become an itching and aching desire. The hugs, Kisses, Love, and well Wishes quickly become evanescent and ones freedom to roam "gone". And if not cautious you'll start to feel lost, left behind, like a stone and or like a pillar of prison.

Naturally my attempt is to reject those feelings I just mentioned by seeking as many photos of Life, Freedom, Joy, Happiness, and Beauty, as possible from you all and I also request that if you decide to fill this request which is "Timeless" that you please explain the, "Who", "What", "Where", "Why", "When", and "How", of each photo sent.

That said, if its on the list below or if you could think of something(s) that you feel could enlighten me, Bring a smile to my face and joy to my heart, Please rush them to me A.S.A.P.
