

What's your Take on Height ??

I've met a lot of people who have a complex or problem with their height. Heck, I'm short but I don't have a problem with it...In fact at times I wonder if men or women are comfortable with their height. Even with those thoughts in mind, I now at the end of the day we must be comfortable in our own skin.

A guy in here asked me if I thought there were women shorter men. He said he knows a few women that said that they did indeed enjoy a shorter man. I was struck by this, because although I've never had a lot of problems dating, I never hear or read about a woman stating she likes short men. It's typically "Tall", dark, and handsome...or something along those lines. Today I'm curious???

men...What's too tall or too short to you in terms of women you'd date?

Women...what are your views or feelings on the height of men you date?

I'm 5'8" and I feel good about it. I've dated women taller than me and shorter than me never having any issues in terms of height. However, I've never heard a woman list a "Short" guy as her preference, so I'm curious as to what are the perceptions of the height of Men and Women out there?

As usual I appreciate your comments and support.
