Where are you now

The Years have gotten on

I wish the memories for you -

Were never created

Where are you now

I hope at peace

& able to forgive - please

Some how the word Sorry - Just won't do

It's too short of a word

After 23 Years of hell

But that's all I have

Everything else has Rusted with time

I wish I knew you could forgive me

Then maybe I could rest in peace

Where are you now - forgiveness
