TITLE: MOTHERS DAY.

Every Day is MOTHERS Day First and Foremost, Let's always remember this fact. Today is the Day that we all should recognize all the things that our Mothers have been to us. We Only have one Mother, We cannot choose our Mother, And She did not Choose us.

Love your Mother everyday, but today, Go the extra mile to show her that you love her. Clean up around the house, Cook a meal for her, Take the Garbage out. Show Her that She is appreciated.

You can't get back tomorrow what you didn't say today.

Think about that. Tell your Mother how much She has been to you. What She means to you. How much you love her.

In Life, It's the little things that count and don't nothing count more than Your Mother, My Mother, Our Mothers...

Today is her Special Day, So if you have any issue with Mommy, Put them aside. Because you only have One and once She goes, You can't get her back.

To All the Mothers, I wish you all a wonderful

HAPPY
MOTHERS
DAY...
