

Words!

6-5-12

A careless word may kindle strife, a cruel word may wreck a life.

A gracious word may soothe the way, a joyous word may light the day.

A timely word may lessen stress, a loving word may heal and bless.

So today let your words be faithbuilding, for people battle with doubt and fear. Let your words be comforting, for people have wounds you cannot see. Let your words be uplifting, for people get torn down by criticism and discouragement. Let your words be calming, for God has promised to bless you if you are a peacemaker. And let your words be character-building; that way you'll leave people better off than you found them.
