

7

Milo Rose blog entry: <http://betweenthebars.org/blogs/5296/>

WRITING ABOUT MY CASE

Over the years I have posted a wealth of information about my situation and case, on the internet. Writing does not come easy to me - and trying to explain how the legal system has been used and abused by a corrupt faction operating within it, working together to suppress the truth of my innocence - has proven to be a matter of life or death. Which often leaves me fighting off deep bouts of depression. Today as I sit here writing this blog from a dungeon cell on Florida's death row. I have a renewed hope of succeeding to build a following strong enough to help the scandal in the miscarriage of justice I suffer to light. I have already begun to present the evidence showing how the five trial level attorneys can easily come forward to vindicate me of any kind of murder. But being able to explain why these attorneys, and a faction within Florida's legal community have a vested interest in working together to conceal the truth of my innocence, is important too. Because they know by admitting to the misconduct in my case. A pattern of criminal activity will emerge to reveal evidence of them being racketeers willing to do whatever it takes to protect their 51 million dollar a year criminal enterprise. As I continue this blog, I will present the evidence indicting the criminal element operating within Florida's legal community. In doing so, I will rely on the members of this court of public opinion to weigh the evidence and bring forth a verdict. I have given the five trial level attorneys every opportunity to come forward on their own. Now they must face the consequences of being complicit in the criminal act of obstructing justice in a capital murder case! As I testify before this court of public opinion, pleading for your verdict condemning the injustice I suffer. I do so holding the moral high ground with a righteous indignation...

Respectfully,
Milo Rose