HELLO!
FROM
MATTHEW JANKOWICZ

"MUSCLE ATROPHY"

I saw the doctor again & he finally acknowledged I have a problem with my left knee/leg. He actually compared my left leg to my right & saw how small my left leg was & saw the nerves in my left thigh spasming. So now he's going to send me to physical therapy, did a blood test, & I will get a nerve test. Also he finally gave me a lower bunk chrono - so I had to move last night to another cell - to get a lower bunk. So my address has changed a little - its now 15-230L (instead of 15-134U).

I have a Mexican cello. He's a Christian & seems to be a nice guy, but I still want to be cello with Eugene - so I'm working on that still, wish me luck. ☺

I'm in pretty bad shape right now - I've ran out of all my cosmetics/toiletries. If you can please help me out - I'll appreciate it a lot. You can send me money by MONEY ORDER or www.JPAY.com. Can you please send me books of stamps also. Thank you very much.

Well thats all for now. Take care. My prayers are with you all. GOD BLESS YOU. Responed to my blog or write to my address below.
