Jessica C.E.,

I received and read your very Powerful ~~article~~ reply to my article on Homosexuality.

I Appreciate your Views - Thank you.

First of all, I want you to understand that T.V., Newspapers, Magazines, billboard, and now Internet/technology are all devices used to promote ideas (i.e., in addition to ~~the~~^{its} entertainment phase);

Rather or not those ideas may be corrupt, perverse, or even positive, is quite a different matter. The point is, is that you can promote something via T.V., and actually turn people out to it. E.g., take some of these ~~famous~~ famous restaurants; They promote this image of all of this delicious food. Right?

O.K., just recently, sociologists have found that this act of flashing hamburgers, burritos, etc... across the screen (so often) is a direct ~~connection~~^{connection} to the growing epidemic of Obesity in the U.S.A.

People see it, they want to try it. I believe that it is mentally unhealthy to expose very young people to homosexuality. This is no disrespect; it is just my opinion, based on the knowledge that I have of psychology and sociology.

To further my OPINION, I believe that when a person chooses to "Sleep" with is - indeed - that person's business - Just so long as it's Consensual and lawful. A different way of putting it, I don't have a problem with some one being gay; BUT do that - Gay - person have a right to Coerce this behavior on Society? That's where I differ. I think that what one does in the privacy of one's own home is legit. However, for the health of Society, certain laws should exist. E.g., There are laws against selling and using Cocain; yet, in that act, there is no actual crime or victim. Think about it. So, then, why do they have anti-Cocain laws? They are designed to help assure PUBLIC SAFETY. TO close this thought, there's no NEED to know who some one is interested in sexually, or even what some one's sexual preference is; so, why choose to make something like that KNOWN? I teach my daughter that Homosexuality is a great

Sin. And that it is diabolical.
Many astute, and befuddled politicians try to say that Homosexuality is a Civil rights issue. I looked at that "angle" long and hard. I just couldn't agree. African-Americans struggle for equal rights as human beings were/are based on the fight against racism. A person can't choose what race they ~~are~~ belong to. Plus, sex was never the issue. I just believe that, as a whole, American Society is crumbling.

Peace
