I think California State prisons are in very bad shape. They are still very overcrowded & the medical care is terrible. More changes need to be made.

I think the news media needs to be informed more about California sentencing laws - they give way too much time (especially life sentences) for 1st time offenders & the 3rd strike law should be eliminated or make the 3rd strike a serious felony & not a non-serious felony. A lot of inmates are getting life for just stealing a candy bar or something similar.

I also they are doing witch hunts for any sex crime. They are giving way too much time (mostly life) for 1st timers. Also they should treat everyone the same. If your a policeman or someone famous you get a light sentence but if your a ordinary citizen, you get a life sentence for the same sex crime. If your a 1st timer you shouldn't get a life sentence.

I think the media should be more informed of the medical care in prisons. I have seen many inmates die in my prison because the doctors here wouldn't help them. They just tell the sick inmates nothing's wrong them & its all in their heads & the next day they die. I have been trying to get help for my nerve damage in my lower back & left leg (& bad left knee) for almost 3 years & they still haven't help me even though my left leg has become $\frac{1}{2}$ the size of my right leg & I can barely walk - with a limp.

I think inmates like me need free legal help from lawyers to help us sue the prisons & doctors here when they neglect our medical needs, like myself. If you would like to help me - please contact me. Thanks.
