

Prison Hearts Ache

6-19-12

ONE MORE night of sleepless pain
ONE MORE night I call your name
ONE MORE dawn that just won't come
ONE MORE night my heart dies some

Why you turned away from me
Why you left's a mystery
Since you've flown to him I find
My hope is gone, I've lost my mind

With each breath I take
With each day I wake
As prison time stands still
With all I am I will Still be loving you

He'll be gone before I'm free
You'll search but find no love like me
And as I lie away from you
It's true that I can't love for two

My prison fate has come to be
I love you; you don't love me
But a thousand goodbyes won't be enough
To stop me loving for both of us
To stop me hurting the way I must
To stop me dying from the loss of us.
