

Trying times in Prison

I, would like to communicate the situations I've found myself in recently. My neighbor who I sleep approximately three feet from, I discovered is gay. He is a young white guy only 20 years old, got passed a letter by an older black guy. Saying that he wanted to have sexual relations with him. Whats weird is now they hang out together all the time. My last neighbor stunk, because he didn't shower, he got transferred to a different dorm, and I definately felt relieved when he moved. But now I'm not so sure lol. Anyway this is not atypical to the ordinary incidents of prison life.