

"Unholy Intentions"

At the Cross roads of redemption - I Stand
With only these Senses you gave me
To repent of my ways
Help me to remember the tired faces
That I have seen along the way
Forgive me for not telling them about your son
Consider my body how
People have bitten me like snakes -
With thier unholy intentions
Once I thought I heard you whisper
Consider the holes they left in my son
Thats when I knew
I had to Relearn to walk by faith
And repent from my emotional twisters.
