"Being Locked Up"

July 2nd 2011

I was removed from society because I broke manmade laws out there. I'm currently here at Florida State Prison (F.S.P.). And that's all it is just a name. My theory on this it's a huge "Daycare Center" and the "pigs" come here and, Watch over (inmates) 24 hours a day for a paycheck. This is what comes with "being locked up". The pigs will harass you constantly meaning they will beat you with handcuffs on behind your back and, shackles on too. How can you win like that? They will play with your food this means not feeding you at times. One thing I must point out. I can except being wrong but in here your wrong even when your right. What sense does that make? They play with your outgoing and, incoming mail they'll give it to other (inmates) intentionally or throw it away a lot of times it's horrible. I'm not feeling sorry for myself. But, this is the price we pay. I'm telling you the things. I've experienced "being locked up" and, still going through till this Day. This is what's here "being locked up" a one man (4x4 cell) with a bunk, toilet, sink etc. Three cold meals a day. A bunch of "foul inmates" you can't trust nor respect. This type of treatment is inhuman to anyone who has some class about themselves meaning me. Being Locked Up" doesn't change who I am. Nobody in here knows me from society. I have one thing to say to everyone that still has their Liberty do me a favor cherish it. Being Locked Up" is not the way for anyone with "Self-Control". Me I'm what you CALL a REBEL you figure it out. Most of my family has died on me "being locked up" so it's me against the World. Now. Enough said:
"I'm open for any opinions or comments."
