

Yeah You

Spoken word piece in honor of our @Risk Youth.

What to think

Waiting is not easy to do psychologically unmastered these emotions resid to the sides of my mind, about you

Yeah You, Young life source, My force of Nature

Heart skip, panic attack you, Yeah You

The conclusion to what I need, but this aint about me what about you? Yeah You.

How do I provide whatever it is that you need inside to keep you alive and high,

high on this eternal vibe we call life, Yeah You.

Why is my heart racing?

Brain erasing memories I aint even thought of yet for what? lack of sleep and rest? thinking about you?

You, hell yeah, you, just made me admit to worry.

I'd wish I can do more,

but wishing is for people that believe it.

I don't do hope either,

because hope is for people that need it.

All I need is you, yeah, you,

So, what about you? yeah, you.
