

Hey, there thanks for reading my poetry, and posting, I am thankful that you understand the reason behind this literary work; also thanks for posting and expand the concept. Americans need to know and feel what you felt. Thanks again! I have alot of other poems that I've penned. I am trying to express what I think people are feeling and are at loss for words to express. I just do it for them. There are many emotions in my poetry. I just sent along with this response a number of poems. I hope you like some in those. I also wrote acrostics. I am passionate about writing and I like the challenge. If you find something else you like let me know. Thanks Again!!!!!!!
