

* CONSEQUENCES OF SOME MEN A CAGE ****

One's girl whispers his name out of Love;
They whisper his name 'cause they loathe
I guess he's better-off without them.
Would you rather be loved or loathed?

One' girl talks about him, full with content;
They talk about him, full of contempt.
Righteousness, out of the two, chose contentment.
I guess. He will cherish his woman!

His girl tasted his love, she rejoiced.
They didn't taste his love, about him they talked.
Tis the contrast between two types of hearts and minds.
Cast not your pearls to swines!
Choose, if you wish which heart and mind.

One's woman rewards him love, for his love.
They rewards him hatred, for his love.
Tis two different responses to Love!
You better know whom you love!

The good assembly is the Messiah's bride.
Just like her, above will be his wife.
Two parallel concepts from the same state of mind.
Please, don't cast your pearls to swines!

Tis the consequences, when some men are put in a cage,
Who don't know how to channel the energy of their rage.
One can quickly discern their body-languages,
Like a book, to read its exposed pages.
Tis the war they e'er wage.
