

Salutations Peterjmartel,

7-17-12

Good to hear from you. Thanks for your comments. I appreciate your thoughts and advice. Glad to hear that you are seemingly in control of yourself with success after incarceration. I encourage you to remain focused and positive. It is so easy to get caught up in the frivolity and end up back in prison. Take it from me, a two timer. I also encourage you to remain in contact with me because there is a lot I can offer you on perspective, especially when times get rough out there. I wouldn't wish this lifestyle on anyone and I'm willing to encourage all to keep them out of here. So if you like, follow my blogs and keep in touch. You may contact me directly at the address provided below if you ever feel the need or want.
