Good Day Mate. ☺
Sammi, you live in Australia!!!
Wow!!! I got your response to a few of my posts and it was good to here from you again.

I was surprised to read that its winter time where your at ☺ but as hot as its been here it probably wouldnt be bad to have some winter air right about now.

Your distance does make Pen-Pal difficult but it would be nice to get a letter or two from you by mail from time to time... their more personal and you could even send me some photo of you and Australia ☺.

Your mother seems like a very wise woman and it appears that shes extended some priceless wisdom to you. I thank you for sharing it with me and I will never forget that "every no brings us closer to a yes" ... thank for that.

Its always a treat to reach to the outside so this interaction with you is fun and im very grateful. Stay cool out there and I hope to hear from you soon.

Respectfully,
