

Sami,

How's it go'ing? 🙏 Well I hope things aren't too bad on your end. I got your comments to "Girls Night Out" and the joke you wrote really cracked me up (haha). Thanks!

Your comments over the past few weeks have been really cool to receive so I want to thank you for that. Today I also got some other comments and even some from family that really made me smile 🙏.

Every time I hear from you I think about Australia so I'm waiting on some photos from down under (haha). I can't wait to hear your responses to a few of the questions I sent to you via BTW.

Look... take care out there and thanks for your continuous comments and interests in my posts. I hope to hear from you again soon.

Respectfully,
- Marcus -
