

THE ENFRIENDING LAW

Anticipate, more than pen will be fond of her parlay
If given the lead — I will follow unsaid,
Self-willing like lust wanting to bed,
Or, desire optimistic like sun to the day,
Where plenty in pulchritude you have incurred in all ways!
Here & now, I will always say what needs to be said!
Friendship shall not silence from speak, I speak to look ahead —
Like gifting you the promise I make good on — forever &
Always...

The laws of friendship is devotion, I pen in freedom
Assuring one thing — if given the lead, I will follow
Down whichever road we choose to venture, if need
I'll exercise to attain the condition to get us to this kingdom?
Loveliness keeps you the kind I'll seek today & tomorrow.
Anticipate!, I am only partial unless with the one I need.
