Hi Ultima - It's July 20, 2012, and I just received your comment posted to my blog. Thank you for the comment and transcription. Sadly, everything I have shared in the blog is true... What is good is that individuals like you are reading the blog - Please continue to follow it, and share it with any and all parties who you feel can be helpful. I filed a lot of Pro Se (self written) petitions to the courts, knowing they would become part of the record. Once the right people look at the facts - the truth will no ^{longer} be held in obscurity by those guilty of abusing their power and authority. Right now, I need to concentrate on the five trial level attorneys. They can no longer be allowed to hide in the shadows with impunity, and must be made to respond to the irreparable prejudice that prevented me from receiving a fair and impartial trial. Their testimony alone will vindicate me of any kind of murder! Please feel free to write to me personally.

Respectfully,

Mike Rose
