

Just another day in....

I pray that this note finds anyone who reads it really enjoying a good place in their lives. As for me, It is well with my soul- Praise God.

Life finds me a bit undone these days. I am out of a job and now this institution is no longer going to Offer Voc. Office at all. I managed to earn a paycheck for only about 50 days. I am now in the middle of transferring over to Christian Seminary which means expense, which means relaying on others to provide as the good Lords wills. Prayers in this would be a help, but really I am not in the leased bit worried, it is His plan so He wil provide-amen.

My typewriter is now making a scary noise though. :( Such is life. :)

The California prison system is going through major changes and there is lots of unrest, inmates and staff alike. Please pray for us!

Also please pray for my mom's recovery. She will be having surgery on August 14. Please pray also for Stand in the Gap Ministry, Mrs Neely-surgery, and for Alex, who suffered a broken hip.

Please smile because God loves you!
